- Great selection of new resorts and residences featured

Award-winning ski tour operator Erna Low knows how important it is to keep skiing during difficult times and our latest 09-10 brochure is released today packed with offers, ideas and tips to get to the slopes this winter for less. With prices starting at only £65 per person* for a week in the Alps, there is no reason why a recession should come between us and our love of the mountains.

From offering free kids helmets to our loyalty club members to our popular price match guarantee, Erna Low has striven to keep offering the best value ski holidays with numerous credit crunch tips for skiers and extra ways to save throughout the brochure. New for winter 09-10, we are proud to include the resorts of Les Gets and Montgenevre in France and Steamboat in the USA as well as a selection of luxury 4* residences in Samoens, Les Carroz, Tignes Le Lac and Bourg St Maurice. Also new for winter 09-10, Erna Low are the newly-appointed management company for the 4* boutique residence L'Aiglon de Morzine. Set to be very popular for next season flexible arrivals, 8-night stays over Christmas and New Year, and short breaks are also possible at L'Aiglon. Erna Low is thrilled by the launch of this new branch of the business.

We are constantly striving to revise and modernise our product and by keeping our look 'fresh' and up-to-date ensures we are ahead in the market in all areas as holiday searches move further online. To complement the brochure arrival, Erna Low has also just launched its brand-new ski holiday website with defining new features set to improve the usability of the site; it contains comprehensive search facilities, prominently displayed offers, more accessible pricing, geographical navigation of featured residences and resorts resulting in a site which is overall easier to navigate. Due to high demand from our loyal clients who are constantly giving us feedback on their ski holidays, the website goes hand in hand with the launch of the Erna Low blog.

'Our last season was extremely successful, despite the financial doom and gloom,' says Joanna Yellowlees-Bound, CEO of Erna Low, 'We attribute this to our outstanding value for money, our huge choice of resorts and properties and our excellent customer service; all of which our clients have come to appreciate and expect. Self catering and/or self drive holidays enable skiers and boarders to make significant savings on their holidays and we plan to continue offering the best possible prices and value to ensure as many of us get skiing next winter.'
